UNIVERSITY OF OTTAWA
BOARD BY-LAW No. __ (2020)
DELEGATION OF APPROVAL OF CONTRACTS AND SIGNING AUTHORITY

BE IT ENACTED as a By-law of the Board of Governors of the University of Ottawa, the following delegation of signing authority:

PART 1

ARTICLE 1 – DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1 Definitions

For the purposes of this By-law and unless otherwise provided in another Board by-law, resolution or policy, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- (a) “Approval Authority” means the University body or the individual holding a position within the University’s governance and management structure with the authority and responsibility to commit the University to the Contract, as set out in Part 2 of this By-law or other Board by-law, resolution or policy.
- (b) “Board” means the Board of Governors of the University of Ottawa.
- (c) “Board by-law, resolution or policy” refers to any by-law, resolution, policy or regulation enacted, adopted, approved by the Board or by the Executive Committee.
- (d) “By-Law No. 1 (2019)” means Board By-law No. 1 (2019) enacted by the Board on February 25, 2019, as may be amended by the Board from time to time;
- (e) “Committee” means a committee established by the Board.
- (f) “Conflict of Interest” refers to a situation in which the financial, professional or other personal situation or commitment of a Signing Authority or Approval Authority influences, compromises or otherwise affects the objectivity and judgement of the Signing Authority or Approval Authority in approving or signing a Contract or is perceived to do so. The situations set out below are meant to illustrate and are not meant to be an exhaustive list of examples of a conflict of interest for an individual who is a Signing Authority or Approval Authority.
 - (i) The individual is in a position to influence, either directly or indirectly, the decision to approve or sign the Contract in ways that could advance the individual’s own personal interests or the interests of a party with whom that individual has an immediate family, personal or business relationship.

- (ii) The individual gives the other party to the Contract an unfair advantage such as providing assistance or advice to such party or participant to the Contract or otherwise acts in such a way as to compromise the ability of the other party to the Contract to perform its obligations under the Contract.
 - (iii) The individual has an ownership, investment interest or compensation arrangement with the other party to the Contract or any entity participating in or associated with the Contract.
 - (iv) The individual has access to confidential information that may affect or may be perceived as affecting the individual's objectivity or judgement in approving or signing the Contract.
 - (v) The individual has accepted a gift or special favours from anyone doing business with or soliciting business from the University or who is a party to (or will be a party to) a Contract which has a personal benefit and could influence or appear to influence a person's objectivity or judgement in approving or signing the Contract; (examples include but are not limited to articles of value such as money, tickets or passes to events, hospitality, trips, entertainment, privileges or other personal rewards or personal special considerations).
- (g) "Contract" shall mean any written agreement, contract, subcontract, letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, memorandum of agreement, deed, transfer, assignment, undertaking, lease, license, donor agreement, certificate, minutes of settlement, release, indemnity agreements, or any other document or accessory document or amendment between the University and a third party, the provisions of which relate to the University's affairs, are legally binding upon the University and require signature on behalf of or in the name of the University.
- For the purposes of this By-law, "Contract" does not include employment related contracts, contracts associated with academic appointments, collective bargaining agreements with employee unions, letters or memoranda of understanding or other agreements pertaining to employment of an individual, collective bargaining agreements.
- (h) "Contract Value" refers to the total financial commitment in Canadian dollars of the amount payable, receivable or otherwise owed by the University during the Contract term (and any extension or renewal of the term) including all service charges, other associated fees and the financial value of potential options, additions or extensions to the Contract, which are known at the time of initial approval of the Contract and expressed in the Contract. Contract value excludes any applicable taxes.
 - (i) "Executive Committee" means the standing committee established by the Board with powers and functions as defined by Board by-law, resolution or policy.

- (j) “Finance and Treasury Committee” means the standing committee established by the Board with powers and functions in respect of the University’s long term portfolio and its treasury investments as defined by Board by-law, resolution or policy.
- (k) “Head of Unit” means the University employee who holds a University position with the highest level of managerial decision-making authority of a Unit.

For example: the Dean, Vice-Provost, Deputy Provost, University Librarian and Vice-Provost, Associate Vice-President, Registrar, Executive Director, Director, Chief Privacy Officer, Chief Information Officer, Chief of Investments, Chief Internationalization Officer, Chair, or such other similar University position of highest level of managerial authority of a Unit, regardless of the position title.

- (l) “Officer of the University” has the meaning given under Board By-law No, 1 (2019) as it may be amended from time to time. As of the date of this By-law, Officer of the University means any of the President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary-General and such other officer of the University as the Board may designate from time to time.
- (m) “Pension Fund Investment Committee” means the standing committee established by the Board with powers and functions in respect of the University of Ottawa Retirement Pension Plan (1965) as defined by Board by-law, resolution or policy;
- (n) “President” means the Rector and Vice-Chancellor of the University, as referred to in the University of Ottawa Act;
- (o) “Secretary-General” means the Secretary of the University, as referred to in the University of Ottawa Act;
- (p) “Signing Authority” is the individual who holds the position of President, Vice-President or Secretary-General, or the position of a Head of Unit or who holds such other University position, regardless of the position title, to whom the authority to sign a Contract on behalf of the University is granted or delegated pursuant to Part 2 of this By-law or such other Board by-law, resolution, or policy.
- (q) “Unit” means a University faculty, school or other academic unit, administrative service or other operating office of the University.
- (r) “University of Ottawa Act” means the special act of the Ontario Legislature entitled, An Act respecting Université d’Ottawa, of the Statutes of Ontario 1965, chapter 137, being the act of incorporation of the University and any statute or regulations that may be substitute therefor, as amended from time to time.
- (s) “University Policy or Procedure” collectively refers to any policy, procedure, directive, rule or regulation approved, from time to time, by the President, a Vice-President, the Secretary-General (or such other governing body at the University).

- (t) “Vice-President” means Vice-Rector, as referred to in the University of Ottawa Act and includes the Provost and Vice-President Academic Affairs, the Vice-President, Research, the Vice-President, Finance and Administration, Vice-President, External Relations, Vice-President, International and Francophonie as well as any other such Vice-President position as the Board may establish.

1.2 Interpretation, review and amendment

- (a) This By-law shall be interpreted restrictively and signing or approval authority shall not be established by analogy or through historical practice.
- (b) This By-law shall be effective from the date of the Board resolution adopting it.
- (c) This By-law shall prevail and take precedence over a University Policy or Procedure provided however it shall not affect the validity of any approval or signature of a Contract made prior to the effective date of this By-law.
- (d) The dollar values expressed in this By-law refer to Canadian dollars and excludes any applicable taxes.
- (e) Any question regarding the interpretation or application of this By-law and the authorized Approval Authority and/or Signing Authority for a Contract must be referred to the Secretary-General for a response, as required.
- (f) The Secretary-General is responsible for causing a periodic review of this By-law at least once every five years or as necessary.
- (g) The Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for recommending amendments to this By-law, if any, to the Board for approval. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, amendments to this By-law required to,
- (i) update or correct the title of an Officer of the University, the name of a Committee, Unit or a position title; or
 - (ii) correct punctuation, grammar, typographical errors, revisions to format and other technical revisions, where appropriate, if the correction does not change the meaning of a provision; or
 - (iii) make consequential amendments to conform with or arising from another Board by-law, resolution or policy, may be made by the Secretary-General and do not need to be submitted to the Governance and Nominating Committee or to the Board for approval.

ARTICLE 2 – PURPOSE AND SCOPE

2.1 Purpose

The purpose of this By-law is to provide for the delegation of authority for the approval and the signing of Contracts on behalf of the University and to provide for the requirement of a legal review by the University's Legal Counsel Office prior to the signing of the Contract by a Signing Authority except in circumstances set out in this By-law.

2.2 Scope

This By-law applies to all Contracts as defined in this By-law.

ARTICLE 3 – APPROVAL AND EXECUTION OF CONTRACTS

3.1 University of Ottawa Act and Board By-law No. 1 (2019)

Pursuant to the University of Ottawa Act, the Board has, except for those matters assigned to Senate, responsibility for the government, conduct, management and control of the University. Pursuant to Board By-law No. 1 (2019), the Board may direct the manner in which and the individual or individuals by whom any type of document may be executed on behalf of the University.

3.2 Delegation of authority

- (a) The Board hereby authorizes the Approval Authorities and the Signing Authorities referred to in Part 2 of this By-law to approve or to sign Contracts on behalf of the University according to the type of Contract and threshold as more particularly set out in Part 2 of this By-law and all such Contracts so approved and signed shall be binding upon the University without further authorization or formality.
- (b) When reference is made to the approval of the Board in Part 2 or in any other provision of this By-law, the Board hereby authorizes the Executive Committee to exercise such approval authority on its behalf.
- (c) The Approval Authorities and Signing Authorities retains such authority delegated to them for any threshold amounts less than the ceiling amount associated with their authority as set out in Part 2 of this By-law.

ARTICLE 4 – GENERAL PRINCIPLES

4.1 Restrictions

- (a) The exercise of the approval and of the signing of a Contract must always be exercised in accordance with the approved University budget relevant to the Contract and any relevant Board By-law, resolution or policy.
- (b) Unless provided in By-law No. 1 (2019) or in other Board by-law, resolution or policy, no individual may approve or sign any Contract on behalf of the University unless that individual has approval authority or signing authority in accordance and compliance with this By-law or has been delegated such authority by the Board pursuant to a Board resolution.
- (c) Dividing a Contract requirement into a number of smaller Contracts to avoid Approval Authorities or Signing Authorities is not permitted.
- (d) The President, Vice-Presidents and Secretary-General each have the power to restrict, in writing, the approval or signing authority of any Approval Authority or Signing Authority subordinate to them.

4.2 Approval and signature format

The approval to a Contract by the Approval Authority must be express and obtained prior to the signing of the Contract and prior to the start of any services or receipt of deliverables associated with the Contract. The approval of the Approval Authority or the signature of any Signing Authority to a Contract may be written, printed, stamped or otherwise mechanically or digitally reproduced or evidenced as such and all such Contract so signed shall be binding upon the University without any further authorization or formality.

4.3 Material risk or impact

Notwithstanding anything contained in this By-law or in any other University Policy or Procedure, approval from the Board or the Executive Committee is required in advance of the University entering into any Contract which has the potential to significantly impact the financial status of the University or has the potential of presenting material risk or onerous consequences, whether financial, reputational, legal or otherwise, or that is precedent-setting or involves sensitive or controversial issues.

4.4 Temporary absence or vacancy of an Officer of the University

In the event of a temporary absence of an Officer of the University, he or she shall, for the duration of his or her temporary absence, delegate in writing such authority granted to him or her pursuant to this By-law to another Officer of the University and shall ensure that the written delegation is communicated to the Office of the Secretary-General. Such written delegation may be made by electronic means. If the position of an Officer of the University is vacant or the individual holding the position of an Officer of the University is inaccessible, the delegation of authority provided by this By-law, by other Board by-law, resolution or policy may be exercised by the individual who has been appointed to fill such vacancy in accordance with Board By-law No. 1 (2019).

4.5 Temporary absence or vacancy other than in Section 4.4

In the event of a temporary absence of an individual (other than an Officer of the University as in Section 4.4 of this By-law) who has been delegated as an Approval Authority or Signing Authority pursuant to this By-law, he or she shall, for the duration of his or her temporary absence, delegate in writing such authority to an individual holding a University position within his or her Unit with the next highest managerial level of authority or in the case of a Dean, to a Vice-Dean and shall ensure that the written delegation is communicated within the Unit. Such written delegation may be made by electronic means. If the position of an Approval Authority or Signing Authority is vacant or the individual holding the position is inaccessible, the delegation of authority provided by this By-law, by other Board by-law, resolution or policy may be exercised by the University position at the next highest level of managerial authority to which the position directly reports to.

4.6 Certificate or Confirmation of Authority

The Secretary-General is authorized to do the following:

- (a) issue any certificate or document authenticating and/or confirming the authority of an Approval Authority and /or a Signing Authority pursuant to this By-law, Board By-law No. 1 (2019), other Board by-law, resolution or policy; and
- (b) modify this By-law in accordance with Section 1.2 (g)

4.7 Head of Unit

A Head of Unit may approve and/or sign a Contract as the Approval Authority and/or Signing Authority pertaining only to their Unit or for the function for which they are responsible or over which they have jurisdiction and that is relevant to the subject matter of the Contract in accordance with this By-law as more particularly described in Part 2 of this By-law.

4.8 Responsibilities

- (a) Before approving and signing a Contract, the Approval Authority and Signing Authority must be satisfied as to the following and upon signing, are accountable for the Contract:
 - (i) That the University is able to meet its obligations within the terms of the Contract and that the other party(ies) is/are reasonably likely to meet their obligations;
 - (ii) That the Contract fits within University's academic, business and operational requirements and complies with relevant University collective agreements and University Policy or Procedure and where applicable with funding agency requirements;

- (iii) That the financial and other benefits or risks to the University as a result of the Contract have been considered and are reasonable in the circumstance;
 - (iv) That the following have been identified and where applicable, brought to the attention of the person holding a University position at the next highest level of managerial authority to the Approval Authority or Signing Authority and have been addressed or reasonably mitigated:
 - risks and liabilities arising by the Contract and any matter of particular importance regardless of the monetary value of the Contract, including any aspect that could,
 - present an unusually high risk, or
 - bring the University under public scrutiny or controversy, or
 - adversely affect the reputation of the University;
 - (v) That the legal review required by Section 4.10 of this By-law has been conducted by the Legal Counsel Office, that any legal advice and/or opinion resulting from the legal review has been followed or if not followed, the reasons for not doing so are documented by the Head of Unit relevant to the Contract.
- (b) The Signing Authority and/or Head of Unit relevant to the Contract must ensure that evidence of approval by the Approval Authority and a fully executed Contract is kept, including all appendices and other supporting documents, in the Unit's files and information system accessible to others within that relevant Unit and comply with University Policy or Procedure on information management.

4.9 Conflict of Interest

- (a) Every Approval Authority and Signing Authority must act in good faith for the best interests of the University and must not approve or sign any Contract where, by doing so, the Approval Authority or Signing Authority is placed in a Conflict of Interest or there is the potential or the appearance of being placed in a Conflict of Interest, unless that Conflict of Interest has been disclosed to and addressed in accordance with Section 4.9 (b) of this By-law.
- (b) Every Approval Authorities and Signing Authorities must declare, in writing to the person they report to, the nature and extent of any potential, actual or perceived Conflict of Interest as soon as the Approval Authority or Signing Authority is aware of any such Conflict of Interest. Where a Conflict of Interest is disclosed or otherwise arises, the individual to whom the Approval Authority or Signing Authority reports to must assess and take appropriate mitigating action to either manage or resolve the situation.

4.10 Legal Review of Contract

- (a) A legal review of a Contract must be done by the University's Legal Counsel Office prior to the signing for a Contract with respect to,
 - (i) Contracts where the Approval Authority or Signing Authority (as applicable) is the Board, the President, the Executive Committee, a Vice-President, the Secretary-General;
 - (ii) the acquisition or disposition by the University of an interest in land or building or other property;
 - (iii) the creation or dissolution of a corporation, trust, limited partnership or other legal entity in which the University will hold or held an ownership interest;
 - (iv) legal settlements whereby the University agrees to settle a legal matter, to release a third party from legal responsibility or to waive its legal rights to legally pursue a third party for a claim it has or may have in future in relation to a specific matter;
 - (v) any other Contract that is likely to significantly impact the financial status of the University or has the potential of presenting material risk to or onerous consequences on the University, whether financial, reputational, legal or otherwise, or that is precedent-setting or involves sensitive or controversial issues.

- (b) Despite 4.10 (a) of this By-law, a legal review by the University's Legal Counsel Office is not necessary in the following circumstances:
 - (i) if the Contract is in a standard form that has been previously prepared or reviewed by the Legal Counsel Office within at least 2 years or the circumstances relevant to the Contract under which such standard form is used have not materially changed since the review done by the Legal Counsel Office; or
 - (ii) if the subject matter and terms of the Contract are standard, low risk, routine and not sensitive.

- (c) Despite any other provision of this By-law, the President or the Secretary-General may require that the Legal Counsel Office review a Contract prior to its execution by a Signing Authority where the President or the Secretary-General may deem it necessary to do so.

ARTICLE 9 – RESEARCH CONTRACTS

9.1 Scope

Contracts in this Article include research agreements as more particularly described below.

9.1.1 Institutional Agreements for Research Grants

The majority of research funds (i.e., Tri-Agency and Canada Foundation for Innovation) come to the University in the form of research grants.

A research grant is an award where the funding is generally provided with the intent of encouraging a professor's research efforts or other studies done at the University of Ottawa, where the funding is to be utilized exclusively for the purposes described in the grant application. Funding is granted by the sponsor with an expectation, but not the requirement, that the tasks identified can be accomplished. Grants are generally distributed by federal grant councils and other non-profit, philanthropic agencies.

Research grants are governed by Institutional Agreements, (i.e. Tri-Agency “Agreement on the Administration of Agency Grants and Awards by Research Institutions” and Canada Foundation for Innovation “Institutional Agreement”).

9.1.2 Research Contract

Research contract is any agreement whereby the University undertakes to perform certain tasks for the sponsor, and where the sponsor imposes certain restrictions either on the direction of the research or service to be performed, on the use of the research results or on their publication. The document generally contains provisions related to the work to be conducted, the time periods over which the work will be performed, confidentiality, ownership rights, commercial exploitation and licensing rights. Any agreement that provides for the payment of salaries or fees to the principal investigator, or to any regular member of the personnel of the University, will be considered as a Contract.

9.1.3 Service Contract

Contracts where an individual researcher, unit or research core facility provides a research-related professional, administrative, technical or educational service, program or product to a third party and which is not covered under any other type of Contract.

9.1.4 Intellectual property and licensing technology

Intellectual Property and licensing technology Contracts encompass agreements whereby the University grants access to research technologies and inventions that have been patented or for which a patent application has been filed and includes agreements for intellectual property management and ownership, related non-disclosure agreements, data sharing agreements. The University grants access to such technologies through licenses to existing and start-up companies that have the capacity to develop the technology successfully into products.

9.1.5 Research affiliation, partnerships, consortia or membership Contracts

These include Contracts whereby the University is agreeing to participate as a member of a larger group in research activities or projects or where the University agrees to work exclusively with another third party as a research partner on common research initiatives. Contracts about research partnerships with an existing or potential supplier of goods and/or services to the University are governed by Article 7- Procurement of Goods and/or Services of this By-law.
