Saroj and Kishori Lal Family Scholarship
Graduate Scholarship for Research at the University of Ottawa Brain and Mind Research Institute

The University of Ottawa Brain and Mind Research Institute (uOBMRI) is pleased to announce the Saroj and Kishori Lal Family Scholarship call for proposals. The purpose of this Graduate Scholarship opportunity is to support trainees conducting research relating to memory cognition, including dementia and Alzheimer’s disease.

How to apply:

Please submit a research summary or abstract (400 words max) explaining a project that is related to memory cognition, including dementia and Alzheimer’s disease research. Please submit all abstracts to Natasha Hollywood nhollywo@uottawa.ca

Competition deadline: Monday, April 6 2020, 11:59 pm

Eligibility criteria:

The applicant must:

1. be a Canadian citizen, a permanent resident, a person with the protected/refugee status or an international student;
2. demonstrate academic excellence; and
3. conduct research relating to memory cognition, including dementia and Alzheimer’s disease at the University of Ottawa Brain and Mind Research Institute.

Funding amount:

$10,000 for 1 year.

Special requests:

The awardees may have to prepare presentations about their work and meet with our private donor as part of a donor recognition effort.