

This template is designed to help your department complete your sustainability plan. The template is divided into two sections to help understand your unique challenges and your proposed solutions.

If you are looking for a sample template, or ideas about solutions your department could implement, please consult the resources section of our website or contact us at sustainable@uOttawa.ca.