

Graduate Mentoring Program

Frequently Asked Questions

NB : A zoom session will be organized to provide more details to mentors

1-Q: What is the value of participating in the mentoring program?

A: You help your mentee to be aware of social and grad studies challenges. You often share tips and strategies to succeed in the program.

2-Q: Who can be a mentor?

A: The mentor is a student currently enrolled in the LL.M. or Ph.D. program who has completed their required courses and who has a significant knowledge of graduate studies in law and its reality.

3-Q: How long is the mentoring program?

A: One term. This is a pilot project and we hope to run it in future terms if there are mentors available and if we reach our goals.

4-Q: Who are we going to mentor?

A: Mentees are new grad students who started the program this Fall term 2020 or upcoming winter term 2021.

5-Q: What is the time commitment?

A: It depends on your availability; however, we recommend one to two hours a per week.

6-Q: How is it beneficial for me?

A: You show your leadership in our community. As a Mentor, you may be eligible for some scholarships or accommodations to attend lectures. It looks good on your CV and to when looking for a job.
