

POSSIBILITES-CARRIERE | CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The Department of Family Medicine is seeking candidates for ONE FULL TIME ACADEMIC PHYSICIAN POSITION to join its dynamic team at the Bruyère Academic Family Health Team

Highlights of the position include:

- Training our future family physician leaders by supervising Family Medicine residents and medical students
- Contributing to advancing the discipline of family medicine in an academic, team-based teaching environment
- Working in a dynamic learning environment and managing your own practice within a fully integrated Family Health team, including nursing support, allied health and a shared mental health care team

Qualified candidates must have an excellent academic record and 3-5 years of experience contributing to academic activities including scholarship, patient care, research, and leadership to enrich the Bruyère teaching program. Preferred focus on obstetrics.

Candidates will require proof of CFPC certification, valid CMPA coverage and be eligible for licensure in Ontario. Physicians in this role are eligible to progress in academic standing to the level of Assistant Professor. Bilingualism is an asset.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
