Otolaryngology – Head & Neck Surgery

University of Ottawa

The past month has been a successful one for the Department of Otolaryngology. We are proud to congratulate Dr. Bromwich who was a recipient of the inaugural 2017 CHEO Quality Improvement Grant, for his project Breathing Easy: A QI initiative to speed patient access for Adenotonsillectomy. We would also like to thank the members of our faculty who recently returned from Kuwait as part of their Otolaryngology Examination Committee.
