

Laure CÉLÉRIER is an Assistant professor at the School of Political Studies in the Public Administration program.

Professor Célérier specializes in public management.

Research Interests:

- Accounting government reforms
- Control in public organizations
- Gender budgeting
- Intangible assets, brand management
- The transformation of administrative elites
- Professions in public organizations
- Methodology: qualitative (semi-structured interviews, observations, documents analysis)
- Épistémologies: pragmatic / interprétative / constructivist / critical

Professor Célérier is an Assistant Professor at the School of Political Studies in the Public Administration Program. She holds a Research Master in Economics from Sciences Po Paris (2007), a Ph.D in management from HEC Paris (2016). Before joining the School of Political Studies, she was a post-doctoral fellow at EHESS (2017). Laure Célérier's research mainly focuses on administrative reforms with accounting and budgeting dimensions. Currently, Laure Célérier is running a research project on the adoption of gender-based budgeting in Canada.