

ANNUAL REVIEW CRITERIA

In applying the following criteria, the Committee will take into account individual circumstances, such as parental leaves, health-related leaves of absence, and changes in thesis supervisors.

The general criteria used by the Committee for students in different years in the program will be the following:

- Year 1:
- Satisfactory performance in obligatory courses.
- Please note that satisfactory performance in the Master's level research practicum is evaluated by the supervisor by the end of August.*
- Year 2:
- Satisfactory performance in all of the following:
 - obligatory courses
 - supplementary clinical courses
 - foundational courses
 - clinical practica
- Information about thesis progress should be fully described in the Annual Research Progress Report.*
- Year 3:
- Satisfactory performance in supplementary clinical courses, foundational courses, and clinical practica
 - For students who entered the program in the Fall 2020, Successful completion of the thesis proposal and approval by the thesis committee
 - For students who entered the program before Fall 2020, substantial progress towards preparation of the thesis proposal as demonstrated by at least one of the following:
 - progress in data collection
 - a draft of the proposal submitted to the supervisor
 - a meeting of the thesis committee with a report on the outcome of the meeting and timelines agreed to by the committee
- Information about thesis progress should be fully described in the Annual Research Progress Report.*
- Year 4:
- Satisfactory performance in supplementary clinical courses, foundational courses, and clinical practica
 - For students who entered the program before Fall 2020, successful completion of the thesis proposal and approval by the thesis committee
- Information about thesis progress should be fully described in the Annual Research Progress Report.*
- Year 5:
- Satisfactory performance in clinical practica and courses
 - Satisfactory progress on the thesis beyond work completed in year 4
- Information about thesis progress should be fully described in the Annual*

Research Progress Report.

- Satisfactory performance in the internship (if applicable).

Year 6:

thesis and/or

- a) For students admitted into the clinical program on the basis of an Honours Bachelor's degree (or equivalent): substantial progress on the satisfactory performance in the internship (if applicable).

Information about thesis progress should be described in the Annual Research Progress Report.

- b) For students admitted into the clinical program on the basis of a Master's degree in psychology: thesis completed and satisfactory performance in the internship (both by August 30th).

Year 7:

in the

For students admitted into the clinical program on the basis of an Honours Bachelor's degree (or equivalent): thesis completed and satisfactory performance in the internship (both by August 30th).

2019-04