

The #uOttawaFSS Scavenger Hunt

Name:

Student Number:

Bring the answers to the 10 questions below to the Social Sciences Pavilion, Room 4007, by September 9 at 3:00 p.m. for a chance to enter the draw. All forms with the correct answers will be entered into the draw on Monday, September 12. The contest is open only to students enrolled in the Faculty of Social Sciences (FSS). Good luck!

- 1. At the FSS Student Experience Center, mentors support FSS students in their transition to the University. The team had fun naming the two plants that now share their space. Give the name of one of the plant names.

Answer:

- 2. The Center for Academic Writing Assistance is a must when you are preparing your first academic papers. What colour are the beanbags in the Centre?

Answer:

- 3. The Career Corner team supports students and graduates in finding experiential learning opportunities that enrich their academic experience and career paths in multiple ways. A famous author inspires students as they enter the Career Corner. What is the author's name?

Answer:

- 4. The uOttawa Students' Union Food Bank provides a helping hand to students in need. Visit the Bank and indicate how often students may use this service. (The answer is accessible even when the service is closed!)

Answer:

- 5. The PIVIK, run by the uOttawa Student Union, is THE general store at the University of Ottawa. Who is the artist that painted the murals on its walls?

Answer:

- 6. The window at the uOttawa Free Store has illustrations of some of the items students can pick up for free. List two of the items.

Answer:

- 7. Would you like to become an expert in karate, aikido, jiu-jitsu, kung fu? It's up to you! But to answer this question, you must find the number of the Tae E. Lee Martial Arts room at Montpetit Hall!

Answer:

- 8. uOttawa recently inaugurated the Student Health and Wellness Centre. As you enter the Centre, you will see a green design element that is reminiscent of a feature in the Social Sciences Building. What is it?

Answer:

- 9. Did you know that it is possible for you to reserve two unique study rooms on campus: the light therapy room and a plant room. To reserve them, you must first find them! Indicate the building and room number of the light therapy room.

Answer:

- 10. The Social Sciences Library, situated on the 2nd floor of FSS, helps students

Answer: