

Research Security Directorate (RSD) | Strategic Plan

Office of the Vice-President, Research and Innovation

Strategic priority

Promote a secure research environment

AVP-IPE strategic priority

Foster a culture of research security

RSD operational priority

Launch and run services to support research security at uOttawa

Objectives

Promote best practices for responsible conduct of research

Share targeted security training with the research community

Assist researchers in conducting due diligence and risk assessment processes

Brief the research community on research security matters, including international business travel

Activities

Launch an online one-stop shop for research security

Launch a stakeholder roundtable on research security

Upload training modules to the one-stop shop

Upload SOPs for conducting due diligence

Review partner organization forms [POF] and risk assessment forms [RAF]

Review risk mitigation strategies [RMS]

Organize Research Security Briefing series [RSBS] and conference

Plan research security briefings for travellers

Baseline

Create the Research Security Directorate (RSD)

Develop security support tools for researchers

Acquire research security software vetting tools

Develop research security briefing material