

Saroj and Kishori Lal Family Scholarship

Graduate Scholarship for Research at the University of Ottawa Brain and Mind Research Institute

The University of Ottawa Brain and Mind Research Institute (uOBMRI) is pleased to announce the Saroj and Kishori Lal Family Scholarship call for proposals. The purpose of this Graduate Scholarship opportunity is to support trainees conducting research relating to memory cognition, including dementia and Alzheimer's disease.

How to apply:

1. Fill out the application information form found below.
2. Submit:
 - a lay summary of your proposed research (200 words max)
 - a research summary (1 page max, excluding references) describing your project that relates to memory cognition, including dementia and Alzheimer's disease research.
 - your proposed training experience (1 page max) describing how the proposed research and involvement with the uOBMRI will advance your training and career goals.
3. Attach up to date school transcripts, two letters of reference and your CV (limit of 2 pages).

The lay summary, research summary, proposed training experience, and CV documents should be single spaced, 12-point font with 1" margins. Please submit your complete application, in one PDF file, to Sarah Schock sschock@uottawa.ca. Reference letters can be sent separately, but please note that it is the applicant's responsibility to ensure the references are submitted on time. If not received, the application will be considered incomplete.

Competition deadline: Friday May 17, 2024, 11:59 pm

Eligibility criteria:

The applicant must:

1. be a Canadian citizen, a permanent resident, a person with protected/refugee status or an international student;
