GUIDELINES FOR THE LIST OF EXAMINERS

1. For the selection of examiners, please see Academic Regulation C-7 - Thesis.
2. A master's thesis jury must consist of two to four examiners.
3. A doctoral thesis jury must consist of four to seven examiners of which at least one must be an external examiner.
4. The list of examiners for a doctoral thesis must include at least two names of potential external examiners from different North American institutions alongwith a detailed CV and a complete list of publications for each.
5. The proposed external examiners should be free of any conflict of interest with regard to the PhD candidate, the candidate's supervisor or the candidate'sco-supervisor. Please see Academic Regulation C-7.7.4 External examiners.
